HARUTUN CHATSCHATURJIAN, 957 Foulkrod Street, was advised of the identity of the interviewing agent and furnished the following information:

CHATSCHATURJIAN advised that on June 13, 1973, he and [redacted] were walking through Northwood Park, near Castor Avenue and Arrott Street, when he saw U.S. District Court Judge EDWARD R. BECKER coming through the park. BECKER said something to the effect "Help me, that man is after me." CHATSCHATURJIAN advised he then saw a young man with a belt wrapped around his hand, swinging the buckle and following Judge BECKER.

b7C

CHATSCHATURJIAN advised he stepped in front of the young man as BECKER proceeded on toward 47th and Castor Avenue. CHATSCHATURJIAN stated he told the man to leave BECKER alone as he was a Federal Judge and could have the man arrested. The young man told him no one could arrest him and showed him a [redacted]

b6
b7C

CHATSCHATURJIAN advised the young man then ran off in pursuit of Judge BECKER who was flagging down a car on Castor Avenue. As the man approached the car, Judge BECKER got in the driver's side and drove off when the man started milling around the car.

CHATSCHATURJIAN stated that he then confronted the man again and told him BECKER was a Federal Judge and he could get in trouble for what he had done. CHATSCHATURJIAN advised the young man was very wild looking as if he were using drugs. He stated the man just walked off after making some incoherent statements.

Lieutenant JAMES GALLAGHER, Badge [] Northeast Detective Division, Philadelphia Police Department, Harbison and Levick, Philadelphia, Pa., advised that at 6:05 p.m., that date, a complaint was received from United States District Judge (USDJ) EDWARD R. BECKER that he had been assaulted in the Simpson Playground located on the south side of the 1000 block of Arrott Street.

BECKER had reported that a young man with a belt had assaulted him demanding money and chased him for over a block before he had got into a passing neighbor's car and was driven to his residence at 936 Herbert Street, Philadelphia. He said there the Judge called the police emergency number for a policeman. A patrol car driven by CHARLES SMITH, Badge [] 15th District, Philadelphia Police Department, responded and Judge BECKER and the neighbor who had picked him up, a JAMES TRAVIS, went with Officer SMITH to the playground and Judge BECKER and JAMES TRAVIS identified a young white male as being the assailant.

b7C

Officer SMITH arrested this man and returned him to Northeast Detective Division. He was identified as [] Philadelphia, Pa.

On arrest, it was noted that [] was very obviously under the influence of some sort of drug. He was wild, incoherent, inarticulate, and very violent. When [] began tearing up the detective spaces, he was placed in a cell in the 15th District located in the same building with Northeast Detectives. Lieutenant GALLAGHER pointed out that he learned later that the subject, []

[] He said further that [] will be charged with attempted robbery and a simple assault but first he would be placed at the Mills Building, Philadelphia General Hospital, for detoxication.

Detective THOMAS F. BOYD, Badge [REDACTED], Northeast Detective Division, Philadelphia Police Department, advised that after the arrest of subject [REDACTED] for the assault of United States District Judge (USDJ) EDWARD R. BECKER, he proceeded to the area of the Simpson Playground in the 1000 block of Arrott Street, Philadelphia, Pa., where he talked to numerous unidentified people as well as youngsters playing there and it was determined by him that subject, [REDACTED] had been hanging around the playground from the past two to three days in a very obvious state of confusion and disorientation and gave the appearance of being very much under the influence of drugs or alcohol during this time.

b7C

Detective BOYD said that after the arrest of [REDACTED] he attempted on numerous occasions to talk with him, but he was completely "freaked out" on drugs and had no idea as to whom he was talking with or even that he was involved in a very serious situation.

b6

Detective BOYD advised that [REDACTED] could not have possibly realized that the action he took in the park was directed at a Federal Judge. He said that he is positive in his mind that [REDACTED] had no idea as to who he may have been attacking and quite possibly that he may not have known that he was doing this.

Policeman CHARLES SMITH, Badge [] said that at approximately 6:08 p.m., on June 13, 1973, Wednesday, while patrolling in RPC #157, received radio message "Meet complainant, 936 Herbert Street."

b6

Upon arriving at this location he was met by Judge BECKER who then informed him that one white male, described as being []

[] threatened him with a belt and wanted his money. Judge BECKER advised that this occurred at the playground, Northwood and Arrott Streets. Judge Becker stated he tried to walk away from this male but the male kept following him and threatening him with the belt wrapped around his hand, and then the male started chasing him. Officer SMITH told complainant to get into police vehicle, passenger side, and witness (TRAVIS) to get in rear of auto. They drove to the playground, whereupon Judge BECKER and TRAVIS identified [] inside playground. [] was holding a patent leather blue belt in his left hand and at building in playground. Officer SMITH approached [] turned him around and handcuffed him from behind. Officer SMITH frisked [] no identification, nothing in pockets, and took the belt. He said that his PR number is []

United States District Judge (USDJ) EDWARD R. BECKER, 936 Herbert Street, 4054 United States Courthouse, 9th and Chestnut Streets, stated that on Wednesday, June 13, 1973, at approximately 6:05 p.m., he was riding in the "K" bus west on Arrott Street in the 1000 block. At this time, he observed [] in the Simpson Playground, located on the south side of Arrott Street in the 1000 block. Judge BECKER then got off the bus at Castor and Arrott Streets to go back to the playground for []. He was wearing a raincoat, rainhat, and carrying two brief cases.

b7C

Judge BECKER started back to the playground, walking east on Arrott Street towards Northwood Street. The main entrance to the playground is located at Northwood and Arrott Streets. As he neared this entrance, one white male, later identified as [] approached him from in front. [] was holding a dark colored leather belt wrapped around his right hand, with the buckle swinging from the top of his fist. [] had the belt raised over his head and approached him coming as close as two feet. [] swung the buckle in the face of BECKER and said "I'm going to get your money and I'm going to get you."

b6
b7C

At this time Judge BECKER started backing away from [] who still kept coming forward with the belt raised and speaking in a menacing tone of voice. He backed across Arrott Street, then across Northwood Street, and into the Northwood Park, with [] still coming at him. Judge BECKER was hollering for help and feared for his safety. He started at a fast pace through the park and [] also picked up speed, coming after Judge BECKER. Mr. BECKER ran past a neighbor, HARUTUN CHATSCHATURJIAN, and his [] and called for help, while still in the park.

b7C

Judge BECKER ran through the park and onto Castor Avenue, 4700 block, and exited at Castor and Herbert Streets. At this time a passing motorist, JAMES TRAVIS, also a neighbor of the Judge, was driving north on Castor Avenue and heard the Judge call for help. TRAVIS stopped his auto and Judge BECKER got into the driver's side, TRAVIS moving over the the passenger side. [] came up to the passenger side of the auto and [] threatened the Judge with the belt as well as verbally. Judge BECKER drove off in TRAVIS' auto to his (BECKER's) home and phoned for the police.

b6
b7C

Within approximately ten minutes, Policeman SMITH, Badge [], 15th District, arrived at 936 Herbert Street. The officer then took Judge BECKER and Mr. TRAVIS with him in the police auto. BECKER and TRAVIS identified [] inside the playground at Northwood and Arrott Streets. Policeman SMITH arrested [] and recovered the belt from [] hand.

b7C

Judge BECKER was not injured in this incident. He heard [] say several times "Give me your money". He stated that [] chased him for approximately one and a half blocks from the first point of contact at Northwood and Arrott Streets. He advised that he passed at least 12 to 15 persons during this incident and was calling for help, but that nobody would lend a hand. Judge BECKER stated that he does not know [] and to the best of his knowledge has not seen him anywhere before this date.

Judge BECKER advised that he is positive [] was under the influence of some sort of drug or narcotic. He said that in his mind, he does not believe that [] knew that he was a Federal Judge even though his neighbor, HARTUT CHATSKIAN, told [] that he was a judge, while being chased through the park.

b7C

Judge BECKER also stated that he was not on official business at the time of the assault but was returning to his home from work and was carrying two brief cases full of work.
